1	Cabernet Sauvignon / Merlot "Moculta", Barossa Valley Estate	35,00 €
2	Cabernet Sauvignon Victoria, Mitchelton Wine Spectator: "Bright in flavor, supple in texture, with smoke-tinged berry and currant flavors that remain tight and spicy through the finish." 87 / 100	75,00 €
3	Command Shiraz Parker: This is an outrageously oaky, flamboyantly-styled offering with immense hedonistic appeal." 94 / 100"	50,00 €
4	Diverse Weine Pirramimma (meist "white label") 1 Fl. 2002 Cabernet Sauvignon "white label"; 2 Fl. 2002 Shiraz "white label"; 1 Fl. 2002 Old Bush Vine "white label"; 1 Fl. 1998 Cabernet Sauvignon "white label"; 1 Fl. 1998 Shiraz "white label"; 1 Fl. 1998 Cabernet Sauvignon; 2002 Shiraz: Wine Spectator: A serious red, with chewy tannins around a supple core of cherry, leather and dusky spice flavors, mingling with a touch of earthiness on the generous, harmonious finish. Drink now through 2012. 88/100. 2002 Old Bush Vine: Wine Spectator: A bigger style of Grenache, distinctly peppery, with chewy texture and some ripe blackberry fruit sneaking in on the finish. Needs time to soften. Best after 2006; 86/100.	60,00 €
5	E&E Black Pepper Wine Spectator: "A profound wine, This Australian Shiraz burrows deep into its plush texture to reveal gorgeous flavors of ripe plum, berry and exotic spice, all balanced impressively on an elegant frame. The tannins are refined and well integrated." 97/100	230,00 €
6	Grange Parker: "The wine is opulently-textured, extremely soft, layered, and seductive, with Grange's tell-tale personality well-displayed, but in a seamless, seductive style. This is a superb Grange that can hold its own against the more heralded 1996." 94 / 10	780,00 €
7	Grange, Penfolds Parker: 91/100; Wine Spectator: A rich wine that never forgets to be elegant 91/100	410,00 €

- Je 1 Fl.: 1994 Cabernet Sauvignon, Rothbury; 1993 Cabernet Sauvignon Basket Pressed, Chateau Reynella; 1997 Liandra Shiraz, Clarendon Hills; 1999 Cabernet Sauvignon Hill of Gold Mudgee, Rosemount; 1995 Cabernet Sauvignon Mc Laren Vale, Hastwell & Lightfood; 1995 Shiraz, Gouldburn Valley; 2001 Bushvine Shiraz Kirralaa, Rosemount / Mondavi; 2001 Cabernet Sauvignon, Kirralaa, Rosemount / Mondavi; 1998 Shiraz, Chateau Reynella; 2000 Grenache at al, Cascabel; 1999 Merlot / Cabernet Sauvignon, Picardy; 2002 Shiraz / Cabernet Sauvignon "Magnus", Leasingham; 1993 Cabernet, Reynella: Parker: Two big, rich, spicy wines, Chateau Reynella's 1994 Shiraz and 1993 Cabernet Sauvignon are boldly-flavored, big, oaky offerings that are supple, full-flavored, and well-balanced. Both rely on considerable quantities of aggressive, toasty American oak for providing spice to their otherwise richly fruity personalities. The 1993 Cabernet Sauvignon exhibits more depth, richness, and intensity, as well as a more youthful color, despite the fact that it is a year older. 88/100; 1999 Hill of Gold, Rosemount: Wine Spectator: Firm in texture, chewy with coarse-textured tannins, and offering a solid core of black currant, berry and plum that echoes enticingly on the finish. Best from 2004 through 2009. 88/100; 2001 Shiraz, Kirralaa: Wine Spectator: Bright and juicy, a lively Shiraz with nice blackberry, red plum and white pepper aromas and flavors, which echo nicely on the finish, balanced with a gentle zing of acidity. 88/100; 2001 Cabernet, Kirralaa: Wine Spectator: Gamy notes weave through the otherwise focused currant fruit, combining to give this a distinctive feel. Tannins are not intrusive. 86/200; 1998 Shiraz, Reynella: Wine Spectator: Big, broad and rich-textured, with grippy tannins around a sluiceful of raspberry, black cherry, currant and exotic spice flavors, picking up licorice and coffee elements as the finish powers through. Australian reds blind retrospective. 95/100; 2000 Grenache, Cascabel: Parker: Cascabel's 2000 Grenache possesses a medium dark ruby color in addition to a knock-out nose of kirsch liqueur and pepper, a sweet, expansive, succulent palate, gobs of fruit, excellent density, and a long finish. 89/100, Wine Spectator: Smooth and plush in texture, a characterful wine with mint and lime notes weaving through the dark, ripe cherry and tobacco flavors. Contains Shiraz and Mourvèdre too. 88/100; 2002 Shiraz / Cabernet Sauvignon "Magnus", Leasingham: Wine Spectator: This lithe style has a smoky edge to the red pepper-scented berry flavors, finishing firm. Best after 2006. 85/100

11	Shiraz The Armagh, Clare Valley, Jim Barry Wine Spectator: "Ripe and intense, with well-defined blackberry, anise and pepper flavors, hinting at chocolate and eucalyptus on the firm finish. Veers toward tartness, but it has impressive, if eccentric, character." 92/100	190,00 €
12	Shiraz, Chateau Reynella Wine Spectator: "Ripe and bright, this is a delicious version of Australia's most popular red variety, with distinctive black pepper, plum and berry flavors that pick up more than a hint of licorice on the lively finish. Fine-grained tannins don't get in the way." 90/100	75,00 €

	Parker: "...The layering of flavors parallels that diversity, with refreshing citrus, pit fruit and red berry, honey, caramel, and white raisin. Ethereal floral high tones and a suggestion of candied fruits such as one notices in the corresponding Halenberg are here too, but for all of its honeyed botrytis aspect, this is bright and underlain by firm, palpable density, rather than creamy and wafting like several of its siblings. Here, too, I would expect this long-finishing Riesling to reward a quarter century in the bottle..." 92/100

108	Château Palmer	780,00 €
	Robert Parker: "One of the superb wines of the vintage, the 1983 Palmer continues to display a saturated purple/garnet color, and an intense perfume of jammy black fruits, smoked meats, flowers, cedar, and Asian spices. Super-concentrated, powerful, and full-bodied, this huge, unctuously textured wine is approaching its plateau of maturity. Because of the high Merlot content it can easily be drunk now, yet promises to last for another 20-25 years. I remain convinced that the 1983 will be the most powerful Palmer since the compelling 1961..." 97/100 <> WeinWisser: "Tiefe, leicht trübe Farbe, immer noch satt in der Mitte. Extrem duftiges Bouquet, Musigny-Pinot-Touch, dahinter Preiselbeeren, immer noch ein Hauch Vanille, berauschend. Im Gaumen extrem fein und zugleich druckvoll, helle Malznoten, Johannisbeeren, ein bisschen Ovomaltine, extrem feine, süsslich ausstrahlende Tannine, mundfüllend, aber nicht opulent. Ein gewinnender Wein (dekantieren), der zu den besten Palmer-Jahrgängen gehört, ganz nahe bei 20/20 Punkten. Trinken bis 2020" 19/20 <> WS 90/100

The penetrating fragrance of cedar, chestnuts, minerals, and rich fruit is a hallmark of this wine. Powerful, dense, rich, and tannic, as well as medium to full-bodied, with awesome extraction of fruit, this Lafite has immense potential. Patience is required. Dichtes, komplexes, fast rahmiges Bouquet, ausladend, reife und pflaumige Cabernet-Aromatik, Lakritze, Black Currant und schwarze Schokolade, Spuren von flüchtiger Säure in der Nase. Fleischiger Gaumen, noch griffige Textur, intensive Adstringenz, etwas stählerne, aber sehr fleischige Gerbstoffe, malzige Aussenseiten, eine unheimliche Konzentration zeigend, sich nur ganz langsam entwickelnd, noch mindestens zehn Jahre bis zur ersten Genussreife brauchend. It possesses a deep purple color, a youthful but promising nose of sweet black fruits, chocolate, caramel, truffles, and minerals. The wine is exceptionally rich and full-bodied, with admirable glycerin and thickness. Its development in the glass indicates the wine is still in a youthful, dormant stage. The finish is full of sweet fruit, with the wine's extract concealing moderate tannin. Initially the bouquet is restrained, but with coaxing it reveals scents of lead pencil, sweet cranberry and black currant fruit nicely intertwined with aromas of steel, minerals, and earth. Rich and medium to full-bodied, but excruciatingly tannic, this is an intensely concentrated Ducru-Beaucaillou with formidable aging potential. Readers should note that 1986 is the first vintage where some bottles were marred by off-aromas of damp cardboard. 343	Riesling, Brand, Grand Cru, Zind - Humbrecht Robert Parker: The five dry Riesling offerings are all remarkable wines. The 1991 Riesling Brand exhibits some evidence of botrytis in its melange of apricot, peach, and apple blossom aromas. It is a deep, highly extracted, spectacularly rich, dry Riesling with medium body and a super finish. Drink it over the next 7-10 years. As extraordinary as the 1989 and 1990 Zind-Humbrecht wines are, the 1991s, largely because of the difficulties presented by the vintage, are even more amazing. Readers must keep in mind that for the top Alsatian producers the situation is much like that in Burgundy - only tiny quantities of wine available. Between 50 and 150 cases of each wine is the entire allocation for the American market. I do not ever remember a producer in a so-so year making such magnificent wines! Bravo to Olivier and Leonard Humbrecht! 93 / 100	25,00 €

In 1999, the Vacheron/Pouzin families introduced a new offering called Les Quartz (named for this terroir's soils). The 1999 Chateauneuf du Pape Les Quartz has lived up to its pre-bottling character. A star of the vintage, it is rich, complex and layered. Scents of garrigue, spicy mincemeat, black currants, minerals, and hot gravel emerge from the provocative bouquet. It is full-bodied and multidimensional, with supple, sweet tannin, immense concentration, and a long finish of nearly 45 seconds. Anticipated maturity: 2002-2018." 93 / 100	190,00 €

366	Les Bessards Hermitages Parker: "The spectacular 1997 Hermitage Les Bessards is a very profound wine. Delas owns 20 acres in what is considered by many to be the finest terroir of Hermitage, Les Bessards. Black/purple-colored, with a spectacular creme de cassis, mineral, spicy new wood, and floral-scented nose, this full-bodied, blockbuster Hermitage possesses a sweet attack (from concentration, glycerin, and extract, not sugar), prodigious concentration and length, and unbelievable potential. This teeth-staining, mouth-coating wine will not hit its prime for 7-10 years; it will last for 25 years. It is an amazing accomplishment in a vintage such as 1997! Anticipated maturity: 2006-2025. The 1997, completely controlled by Jacques Grange, was made in the new cuverie, which he built to his specifications. It admirably proved what dedication to quality and no compromise winemaking can achieve." 94/100	275,00 €

- 1 Fl. 1997 Chardonnay unfiltered, Napa Valley, Robert Mondavi Winery; 1 Fl. 1997 Chardonnay unfiltered Carneros, Robert Mondavi Winery; 1 Fl. 2001 Chardonnay fine Oak aged, Vintner's Select, Haywood 1997 Chardonnay, Mondavi: Parker: The 1997 Chardonnay Napa exhibits an elegant pear, honey, lemon butter-scented nose, with subtle wood in the background. In the mouth, it is lush, ripe, and round, as well as extremely well-delineated and zesty. 87/100. Wine Spectator: Tight, crisp and a touch flinty, with mineral, citrus, pear and melon flavors. Finishes with light oak and attractive fruit. 88/100 1997 Chardonnay, Carneros: Parker: The subtle, mineral-imbued 1997 Chardonnay Carneros offers a spring flower blossom, white peach, moderately intense bouquet. Medium-bodied and pure, with a hint of toasty oak, this restrained example is reminiscent of a high-class Graves. A Chardonnay for white Graves lovers 88/100.
- I think it is safe to say that no white wine at Robert Mondavi goes through 100% malolactic fermentation given winemaker Tim Mondavi's belief in trying to produce wines with flavor, vibrancy, and as he says, "nerve."
- Mondavi's Chardonnays are given partial malolactic, although the percentage is less and less, with Tim Mondavi pushing for more precision and vibrancy. Yields continue to be lowered, resulting in concentrated, refreshing, food-friendly wines. 87/100;

- Parker: The 1995 Riesling Smaragd Durnsteiner Kellerberg offers a nose of citrus fruits, mint and sweetened herbal teas. Bright limes, spicy fennel bulbs, and apricots can be found in its laser-like character. This light to medium-bodied effort is an almost linear, extremely long wine of huge concentration that requires cellaring. Projected maturity: 2005-2020. 94/100
Wine Spectator: Tropical flavors of passion fruit and litchi add dimension to the racy, citrusy acidity in this lively, focused Riesling. Elegance and finesse make this an electrifying presentation. 90/100

Full and rich on the palate, this handles its enormous sweetness by preserving juicy essences of its diverse fruits and displaying only a subtle, lovely hint of caramelization (although more will surely emerge as the wine matures). Even the marzipan note seems to be imbedded with fresh almonds, and a subtle sense of citrus zest and berry skin tartness is woven into the whole. The nearly endless, palate saturating finish reprises most of the aforementioned themes, and with the past as guide one can safely predict there is much else to come..." 96/100 <> Wine Spectator: "Amazingly lush and unctuous, with an impressive silkiness and loads of buttercream, vanilla, ripe pear and baked apple flavors. Balanced, thick and ripe, with plenty of structure. The elegant finish is filled with lots of hot toddy notes. Chardonnay and Welschriesling. Drink now through 2020..." 96/100	45,00 €

It's harmonious, and dense without heaviness; approachable now, it should age well. A successful modern-style wine. 90/100; Parker: This wine was aged in French and American oak for ten months prior to being bottled unfiltered. It is a blend of estate grown Mourvedre, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Tempranillo. The wine offers beautiful purity, admirable ripeness, and a mouthfilling, fleshy personality. There are 3,000 cases of this blockbuster, sweet, jammy, black fruit-scented and flavored Tinto. This teeth-staining, seriously endowed red 90/100; Jahrgang 2001: Wine Spectator: Rich, offering ripe plum, coffee, chocolate and mineral flavors in a well-integrated package. Thick, with firm, round tannins, traditional flavors and international structure. Monastrell, Cabernet Sauvignon and Tempranillo. Drink now through 2010. 88/100; Parker: Polished and elegant, with a slightly elevated oak component is the 2001 Crianza, a blend of old vine Mourvedre and younger vine Tempranillo and Cabernet Sauvignon (aged 10 months in both French and American wood, with the latter more aggressive at present). Inky purple, it has an expressive bouquet of mocha/espresso, pain grille, graphite, wild blueberrys, and blackberry liqueur. This is followed by a full-bodied, full-flavored, plush wine with layers of spicy black fruits, impeccable balance, and a long, pure finish. The tannins are well concealed but this superb effort should evolve for 4-6 years and drink well through 2027. 95/100; 1999 Gran Reserva, Matarromera: Wine Spectator: This polished red delivers maturing flavors of tobacco, dried cherry, toast and spice on a firm, sleek frame. The tannins are a bit firm, but the finish is fresh. Drink now through 2011. 3,000 cases made. 88/100; Parker: The 1999 Gran Reserva, a dark ruby-colored wine, exhibits nicely developed aromas of cedar, cinnamon, leather, black currants, and blackberry. This is followed by a wine that has a solid core of fruit but is a bit lacking in depth and breadth. 89/100; 1999 Prestigio, Matarromera: Wine Spectator: Good concentration and structure give this red an impressive foundation. The plum and black cherry fruit flavors are ripe, but need time to express themselves. Notes of licorice, coffee and lilac linger on the finish. Drink now through 2012. 1,000 cases made. 91/100. 2003 Reserva, Matarromera: Parker: The 2003 Reserva spent additional time in barrel. Dark ruby-colored, with coaxing, it emits scents of cedar, spice box, blackberry and licorice. On the palate the wine is firm and chunky, a characteristic of 2003s from this hot vintage.
